

101 IELTS Speaking Part Two tasks about people, places, actions, things and times

Although it is impossible to predict the most likely topic for an IELTS Speaking Part Two, 80 to 90% of the questions fit into the categories of “people”, “places”, “actions” “things” and “times”. By organising IELTS Speaking practice around these categories, students can ensure that they practise the language they will need to be able to deal with almost any question that comes up in the exam.

The sections below (“people” etc.) are in no particular order, but inside each section an attempt has been made to put the most typical IELTS questions near the top. The questions near the bottom of each section are less common but can be used to tie IELTS Speaking in with textbook topics and/ or give students an extra challenge.
