

Academic Word List giving examples Giving examples phrases game Student A

Choose one of the things below and give examples of that thing until your partner guesses exactly what you are talking about. They can only guess once per hint. Use a different phrase from the box below for each example.

Useful phrases for giving examples

A (less) well-known/ famous/ better/ different/ similar/ great/ typical example

An obscure example/ additional example

The most well-known example/ most famous example/ most obvious example

To give If I can use I'd like to illustrate my point with an example

There are many/ To give one of the many/ One of the best/ One of many examples

An example from my own experience/ that I read/ which I often use/ which springs to mind/ to show you what I'm talking about/ which is often used to illustrate this point/ which you might be familiar with

- 1. abstract nouns
- 2. aid for developing countries
- 3. arguments which you are unconvinced by
- 4. attributes of a good researcher
- 5. bad conduct by politicians
- 6. circumstances under which you would steal
- 7. coincidences which you have experienced
- 8. commentators
- 9. commitments which you have made
- 10. commodities
- 11. components of things in this room
- 12. concepts that you understand well
- 13. consequences of individualism
- 14. constraints on your freedom
- 15. constructive criticism which you have experienced
- 16. consumer rights
- 17. contributions to your understanding by other students
- 18. conventions of academic writing
- 19. criteria of a good paragraph
- 20. crucial issues for the Japanese government
- 21. deregulation
- 22. devices you have used

- 23. disproportionate reactions
- 24. documents
- 25. domestic tasks
- 26. dramatic changes in your lifetime
- 27. durations
- 28. erosion
- 29. erroneous ideas about Japan
- 30. possible evidence in support of a hypothesis
- 31. evolution
- 32. corporate crimes
- 33. examples of diversity in Japan
- 34. examples of incompatibility in couples
- 35. real examples of isolationism
- 36. different kinds of museum exhibits
- 37. real examples of exploitation
- 38. facilities in this building
- 39. factors you took into account when choosing this university
- 40. foreign currencies
- 41. forms of discrimination
- 42. formulae
- 43. generations
- 44. goals which are unattainable for most people
- 45. good attitudes for postgraduate students
- 46. good ways of bonding with your classmates
- 47. government interventions in the private sector
- 48. guidelines for academic writing
- 49. highlights of your academic life
- 50. home maintenance
- 51. ideologies
- 52. implications of your recent research/ research you have read recently
- 53. imprecise estimates
- 54. inappropriate actions for university lecturers
- 55. incentives to live more healthily
- 56. incoherent arguments that you have read
- 57. indicators of recession
- 58. infrastructure
- 59. innovators
- 60. institutions
- 61. intrinsic properties of capitalism
- 62. irrational beliefs
- 63. items on your list of things to do
- 64. Japanese cultural norms
- 65. journals
- 66. justifications for murder
- 67. legislator
- 68. liberalisation
- 69. long procedures

Student B

Choose one of the things below and give examples of that thing until your partner guesses exactly what you are talking about. They can only guess once per hint. Use a different phrase from the box below for each example.

Useful phrases for giving examples

A (less) well-known/ famous/ better/ different/ similar/ great/ typical example

An obscure example/ additional example

The most well-known example/ most famous example/ most obvious example

To give/ If I can use/ I'd like to illustrate my point with an example

There are many/ To give one of the many/ One of the best/ One of many examples

An example from my own experience/ that I read/ which I often use/ which springs to mind/ to show you what I'm talking about/ which is often used to illustrate this point/ which you might be familiar with

- 70. manual labour
- 71. market manipulation
- 72. media
- 73. mediation
- 74. law enforcement
- 75. networks
- 76. objects which are disposable
- 77. objects with distinctive design
- 78. occupations
- 79. parts of the establishment
- 80. periodicals
- 81. philosophies
- 82. places which are inaccessible to wheelchair users
- 83. places with substantial Japanese minorities
- 84. positive aspects of contemporary art
- 85. possible impacts of academic research
- 86. your presumptions which turned out to be wrong
- 87. psychological problems
- 88. publications
- 89. qualitative research
- 90. radicals
- 91. inaccurate statements
- 92. reasons for inaccuracy
- 93. regions

- 94. sales promotions
- 95. school assignments
- 96. signs of maturity
- 97. signs that someone is a conformist
- 98. sources of personal income
- 99. sources of quotations
- 100. supernatural phenomena/ entities
- 101. advantages of looking for consensus
- 102. consequences of choosing this university
- 103. things that exceeded your expectations
- 104. things which are conceivable in the next five years
- 105. things which are declining
- 106. things which are fluctuating
- 107. things which are inevitable
- 108. things which are undeniably true
- 109. things which are/ might be infinite
- 110. things which might induce birth
- 111. things which should be prohibited
- 112. things which will definitely happen in the next ten years
- 113. things which you feel inhibited about
- 114. things which you were unaware of five years ago
- 115. things which you would put in this country's constitution
- 116. things with many layers
- 117. things you are incapable of
- 118. things you have been/ are/ would be excluded from
- 119. things you would demonstrate against
- 120. uncontroversial topics of conversation
- 121. uneconomical personal habits
- 122. unethical research practices
- 123. unprecedented events
- 124. ways in which Tokyo is inadequate
- 125. ways of approximating
- 126. ways of assessing language skills
- 127. ways of categorising things in this room
- 128. ways of emphasising
- 129. ways of enhancing life in Tokyo
- 130. ways of evaluating research
- 131. ways of grading university students
- 132. ways of implying something without saying it directly
- 133. ways of showing initiative
- 134. your expertise
- 135. your goals
- 136. your initial impressions of this area
- 137. your principles
- 138. your priorities

Worksheet 2 - Phrases for giving examples presentation/ practice

Try to remember or think of at least two words or phrases for each of the gaps below.

A	example
An	example
The	example
	an example
	examples
An example	·

Check with the previous pages.

Test each other on the phrases above.

Take turns brainstorming as many suitable phrases as you can (including ones not above like "e.g.")

Correct the following phrases

- One of the best example is...
- For example..., and so on.
- ...and etc.

Do these phrases have the same or different meanings? (If there are more than two, they all have the same meaning or all have different meanings.)

- ...and so forth./ ...and so on./ ... etcetera.
- e.g./ i.e.
- ...,e.g..../ ,such as.../ ...,like...
- One of the best examples is.../ The best example is...
- The best example is.../ The best illustration of this is...
- An additional example is.../ Another example is...
- An example from my own experience is.../ My favourite example of this is...
- For example/ For instance

Further practice

All the phrases in the first task have words from the Academic Word List. Check any words that you don't understand, working together to give examples each time.

Choose one category above and take turns giving different examples using different phrases until someone gives up. Try to do it without looking at the list of useful phrases.