

ed and ing adjectives coin games

Game A – ed and ing adjectives make me say yes or no

Flip a coin then try to get a “Yes” answer from your partner if you got heads or a “No” answer from your partner if you got tails, in both cases with questions including either an -ed adjective or an -ing adjective. Your teacher will tell you if/ when you can use the suggested questions on the next page to help.

Game B – ed and ing adjectives make me say yes

Flip a coin then try to get a “Yes” answer from your partner to a question including an -ed adjective if you got heads or try to get a “Yes” answer to a question including an -ing adjective if you got tails.

Game C – true ed and ing adjective sentences challenge

Flip a coin then try to make a true sentence about your partner including an -ed adjective if you got heads or a true sentence about your partner including an -ing adjective if you got tails.

Game D – ed and ing adjectives coin bluffing game 1

Secretly flip a coin then make a true statement using an -ed or -ing adjective if you got heads or a false/ imaginary sentence using an -ed or -ing adjective if you got tails. Perhaps after asking for more details, your partner will guess if your sentence is true or if it is just made up.

Game E – ed and ing adjectives coin bluffing game 2

Flip a coin. Your partner will give you an -ed adjective to use if you got heads or an -ing adjective to use if you got tails. Make a statement about yourself using that word, just using your imagination if you can't think of anything true to say. After asking questions to find out more about that feeling, experience, etc, they will guess if your sentence is true or not.

Game F – ed and ing adjectives coin bluffing game 3

Listen to a Yes/ No question from your partner, flip a coin and answer “Yes” if you got heads or “No” if you got tails, even if that is not true. After asking follow-up questions, your partner will guess if your first answer was true or not.

Game G – ed and ing adjectives things in common coin game

Flip a coin then try to find something in common with your partner using an -ed adjective if you got heads or something in common with your partner using an -ing adjective if you got tails.

Game H – ed and ing adjectives things in common and not coin game

Flip a coin and try to find an experience, a feeling etc that you have in common with your partner using an -ed or -ing adjective if you got heads or something that you don't share related to an -ed or -ing adjective if you got tails.

Suggested yes/ no questions with -ed and -ing adjectives

- Did you feel... the first/ last time that you...?
- Did you feel... when you heard about...?
- Do you (always/ usually/ often/ sometimes/ ever) feel... when...?
- Do you agree that... is more... than...?
- Do you agree that... is the most... thing that has happened recently?
- Do you agree that... is...?
- Do you find... to be (very/ quite/ a little)...?
- Do you imagine/ think that... is (probably)...?
- Does... (always/ usually/ often/ sometimes/ ever) make you feel...?
- Have you ever felt... (when...)?
- Have you ever found... to be (very/ quite/ a little)...?
- Would you describe... as...?
- Would you feel... if...?

Suggested –ed and –ing adjectives for the games above

1. alarmed/ alarming
2. amazed/ amazing
3. amused/ amusing
4. annoyed/ annoying
5. astonished/ astonishing
6. bored/ boring
7. challenged/ challenging
8. comforted/ comforting
9. confused/ confusing
10. convinced/ convincing
11. depressed/ depressing
12. disappointed/ disappointing
13. discouraged/ discouraging
14. disgusted/ disgusting
15. disheartened/ disheartening
16. dissatisfied/ dissatisfying
17. distracted/ distracting
18. distressed/ distressing
19. disturbed/ disturbing
20. embarrassed/ embarrassing
21. encouraged/ encouraging
22. energised/ energising
23. entertained/ entertaining
24. excited/ exciting
25. exhausted/ exhausting
26. fascinated/ fascinating
27. flattered/ flattering
28. frightened/ frightening
29. frustrated/ frustrating
30. fulfilled/ fulfilling
31. inspired/ inspiring

32. insulted/ insulting
33. interested/ interesting
34. invigorated/ invigorating
35. irritated/ irritating
36. motivated/ motivating
37. moved/ moving
38. overwhelmed/ overwhelming
39. perplexed/ perplexing
40. pleased/ pleasing
41. refreshed/ refreshing
42. relaxed/ relaxing
43. revolted/ revolting
44. satisfied/ satisfying
45. shocked/ shocking
46. soothed/ soothing
47. stimulated/ stimulating
48. stunned/ stunning
49. surprised/ surprising
50. terrified/ terrifying
51. threatened/ threatening
52. thrilled/ thrilling
53. tired/ tiring
54. touched/ touching
55. troubled/ troubling
56. unconvinced/ unconvincing
57. underwhelmed/ underwhelming
58. uninterested/ uninteresting
59. worried/ worrying