

Good and taboo questions with irregular plurals

Ask each other questions from below, picking the most normal questions/ the most suitable questions/ the most common questions to ask a classmate first. Your teacher will tell you which sections to look at (or if you can use all the sections). You should try to avoid taboo questions/ strange questions/ questions which are too personal, but you can politely refuse to answer such questions if you like.

Useful phrases for avoiding too personal questions

"I'd rather not say (if you don't mind)"

"I'm afraid that's a bit personal"

Ask about any questions which you don't understand, can't answer, are not sure if they are taboo or not, etc, answering or refusing to answer them each time.

Without looking at the questions below, make as many good small talk questions as you can out of the nouns below, making them plural if the question needs it.

foot	man/ woman	person
child	tooth	mouse
wife/ housewife	fish	knife
loaf	thief	life
leaf	series	crisis
referendum	yourself	sheep
alumnus	aircraft	deer
wolf	goose	phenomenon
bacterium	biceps	species
louse/ headlouse	spacecraft	boar/ wild boar
salmon	criterion	grouse
calf	neurosis	faux pas
vertebra	rendezvous

Ask about any nouns that you couldn't make questions out of, etc, working together to make and answer questions with those nouns each time.

Try to remember the plural forms of all the words above, then check with the following page.

Test each other on the plurals by:

- saying the singular and plural and seeing if your partner can remember which one is plural and repeat it back
- saying the singular and seeing if your partner can say the plural
- saying the plural and seeing if your partner can say the singular
