

Answer Sheet: Idioms- Law

Choose the correct answer.

Q1 - If the jury is out on an issue, there is no consensus on the issue.

✓ True False

Q2 - A barrack-room lawyer is qualified to give opinions on things they speak about.

True ✓ False

Q3 - A barrack-room lawyer is a military lawyer.

True ✓ False

Q4 - A lawyer who encourages people that are ill or have had accidents to sue is an ambulance chaser.

✓ True False

Q5 - Jersey justice is moderate or mild justice.

True ✓ False

Q6 - If someone's brought to book, they are punished or held accountable for what they have done wrong.

✓ True False

Q7 - If someone lays down the law, they are authoritarian and strict.

✓ True False

Q8 - A moot point is a debatable issue.

✓ True False

Q9 - If you read someone the riot act, you debate an issue with them.

True ✓ False

Q10 - If you follow the letter of the law, you do what you believe is right regardless of what other people think.

True ✓ False