

Answer Sheet: Idioms- War & Violence

Choose the correct answer.

Q1 - If you cross swords with someone, you have a dispute or argue with them.

✓ True  False

Q2 - When things are going great guns, there's a lot of trouble and fighting.

True ✓ False

Q3 - If you lower your sights, you make peace with someone.

True ✓ False

Q4 - If someone drops a bombshell, they unexpectedly announce something important that will have a considerable impact.

✓ True  False

Q5 - When someone wins overwhelmingly, it is a Pyrrhic victory.

True ✓ False

Q6 - A person who is unpredictable and difficult to control is a loose cannon.

✓ True  False

Q7 - If you keep your powder dry, you are always ready and prepared for any problems that might occur.

True ✓ False

Q8 - If something has a good chance of succeeding, it's a long shot.

True ✓ False

Q9 - Something that proves conclusively that someone did something wrong is a two-edged sword.

True ✓    False

Q10 - Someone who shoots from the hip, thinks carefully before they give their opinion.

True ✓    False