

Answer Sheet: Modal Check

Choose the correct answer.

Q1 - A modal verb doesn't have a past participle.

✓ True False

Q2 - All modal verbs have a simple past tense form.

True ✓ False

Q3 - We can use modals to express our attitudes.

✓ True False

Q4 - Modals form questions by inversion.

✓ True False

Q5 - Modals have gerunds.

True ✓ False

Q6 - Each modal has only one meaning.

True ✓ False

Q7 - Modals have passive forms.

True ✓ False

Q8 - 'Will' and 'shall' are the only modals that can refer to future time.

True ✓ False

Q9 - 'May' is the only modal that can be used for asking or giving permission.

True ✓ False

Q10 - 'Should' and 'ought' do not have the same meaning.

True ✓ False