

Have something done coin games

Do the game or games below that your teacher tells you to. Your teacher will tell you if/ when you can use the suggested actions on the next page to help.

Have something done guessing coin games

Have something done guessing coin game 1

Flip a coin and try to guess the thing about your partner that matches the side that is top:

- heads = try to guess something that your partner has done
- tails = try to guess something that your partner does themselves

Have something done guessing coin game 2

Secretly flip a coin. Say the thing that matches the side of the coin that is top without putting it into a sentence (e.g. "Cut my hair", not "I cut my own hair"), and see if your partner can guess what is true about you and so can guess which side of the coin was top:

- heads = say something that you have done (but just the action, not in a sentence)
- tails = say something that you do yourself (but just the action, not in a sentence)

Have something done things in common coin games

Have something done things in common coin game 1

Flip a coin then try to find an action that is the same for you and your partner that matches the side which is top:

- heads = try to find something that you both have done
- tails = try to find something that you both do yourselves

Have something done things in common coin game 2

Flip a coin then try to find something in common or a difference between you depending on which side of the coin is top:

- heads = try to find something that you both have done or you both do yourselves
- tails = try to find something that one of you has done but the other person does themselves

Have something done bluffing coin games

Have something done bluffing coin game 1

Secretly flip a coin, say something true or false about your actions depending on which side was top, then see if your partner can guess if you were lying or not.

- heads = say something true about what you do or have done
- tails = say something false about what you do or have done

Have something done bluffing coin game 2

Secretly flip a coin, randomly pick a thing from the left or right column below depending on which side is top (by closing your eyes, by picking a number without looking, etc), say that you have that thing done, then see if your partner can guess if it is true or not:

- heads = randomly choose something from the left-hand column below and say that you have it done (even if that is not true)
- tails = randomly choose something from the right-hand column below and say that you have it done (even if that is not true)
