

How Questions- Gapfill Guessing Game

Choose one of the sections below and read out the phrases there with the same key word (the one written at the top section) missing for your partner to guess, e.g. saying "That's BLANK pity" or "That's LA LA LA shame" for "a". Your partner can only guess once per hint. If they still haven't guessed when all the examples are finished, make up other sentences with the same word missing.
