

Names of jobs subject questions quiz with names of jobs word formation

Work together to answer these questions, using the big list below to help if you need to.

- Who makes and sells bread?
- Who delivers letters?
- Who plays a piano?
- Whose job title is two words starting with P and O?
- Who teaches in someone's house?
- Which person is in charge of the day-to-day running of a company?
- Whose job involves cutting and selling meat?
- Who fixes pipes and water problems?
- What kind of doctor is called "Mr...", not "Dr..."?
- Who made horseshoes?
- Who do you pay to come to your house and look after your children for a few hours?

Match the questions to these mixed answers:

- A babysitter.
- A baker does.
- A blacksmith did.
- A butcher's does.
- A CEO is.
- A pianist does.
- A plumber does.
- A police officer's is.
- A postal worker does.
- A private tutor does.
- A surgeon is.

Together analyse the structure of the questions and answers above.

How are the other questions and answers different from "Who do you pay to come to your house and look after your children for a few hours?" "A babysitter".

In which kind of question is the question word (= "Wh word") the subject of the question?

Make similar questions to test your partner on words from the next page below, giving them different options to choose from if they aren't sure.

Ask about any words which you don't understand, making similar questions to get that word once you understand.

Work together to answer these questions about the differences between similar jobs:

- Which is a full-time professional job, a nanny or a babysitter?
- Which is better paid, a banker or a bank clerk?

Test each other on differences between similar words below with questions starting with "Which...?"

Jobs to ask questions about and guess

actor	au pair	babysitter
baker	bank clerk	banker
bar tender	barber	barista
baseball player	blacksmith	bouncer
builder	butcher	cameraman/ camera operator
care worker	caretaker/ janitor	carpenter
CEO	chauffeur	chef
civil servant/ public servant		comedian
cook	critic	customs officer
director	electrician	emperor
engineer	entrepreneur
estate agent/ real estate agent/ realtor		fiancé/ fiancée
flight attendant	florist	footballer/ football player
GP/ general practitioner	homemaker	immigration officer
interpreter	king	lecturer
magician	manager	masseur/ masseuse
mayor	mechanic	monk
musician	nanny	newsreader/ news anchor
novelist	nun	nutritionist
office worker	PA	photographer
pianist	plumber	police officer
politician	postal worker	priest
prime minister	private tutor	professor psychiatrist	psychologist	queen
receptionist	sailor	sales assistant sales rep/ sales representative		security guard
server	social worker	soldier
surgeon	TA/ teaching assistant	tailor technician/ service engineer		television celebrity
television presenter	therapist	town councillor
traffic warden	translator	vet/ veterinarian
violinist

Jobs word formation

Without looking above, add suffixes or words to the words below to make job titles/ names of jobs. You don't need to change the root words there.

- act
- bank
- baseball
- build
- camera
- care work
- customs
- direct
- electric
- interpret
- magic
- music
- novel
- nutrition
- office
- photograph
- reception
- sail
- social
- assist
- present
- violin

-----fold, cover or cut-----

Use these mixed suffixes and words to help. Most have more than one example above.

-ant
-er
-ian
-ist
man officer
operator
-or player
worker

Check with the list of jobs above. Some may have other answers, so please check if you wrote something different.