

Present Continuous and prepositions drawing dice game

Throw a dice five times and draw sentences from below on the board or one large piece of paper, e.g. "He's reading under a green bed" if you throw "3, 4, 3, 3, 3". "I", "You" and "We" should be pictures of yourself and your partner or teacher. "He" and "She" can be any girl or any boy.

	First roll	Second roll	Third roll	Fourth roll	Fifth roll
1	I'm	walking	on a/ in a	black	river
2	You're	standing	under a	red	house
3	He's	sleeping	next to a	green	bed
4	She's	reading	in front of a	blue	sofa
5	We're	swimming	behind a	black	chair
6	They're	sitting	near a/ close to a	red	train

Make your own dice grid below the fold, without looking above to help if you can. You don't have to use all five columns if you don't want to.

Your own Present Continuous and prepositions drawing dice game

	First roll	Second roll	Third roll	Fourth roll	Fifth roll
1
2
3
4
5
6

Play the game again, maybe after swapping your game board with another group.