

Subject Questions- Guess The Person Game

Choose one person who you know or spoke to such as someone in the list below and make a “Who...?” or “Whose...?” question to which that person is the (only) answer. If your partner can't guess who you are talking about, give them other hints such as other “Who(se)...?” questions about the same person.

Suggested people to ask about

aunt/ uncle

boyfriend/ girlfriend

(oldest/ older/ middle/ younger/ youngest) brother/ sister

bus driver

cabin crew

classmate/ school mate/ school friend client/ customer – supplier coach/ sports teacher/ English teacher/ music teacher/... teacher colleague/ co-worker/ workmate

cousin

customs officer

dad/ father – mum/ mother

daughter(-in-law)

direct boss/ line manager

doctor

ex(boyfriend/ girlfriend/ husband/ wife)

ex-classmate

father-in-law

fellow alumni

fellow volunteer

fiancé(e)

(best/ old/ close) friend

grandmother/ grandfather great-aunt/ great-uncle

great-grandfather/ great-grandmother

husband/ wife

mother-in-law

pet

police officer

receptionist

relative/ relation/ distant relation salesman/ sales rep

security guard

shop assistant

son(-in-law)

station staff

stepmother/ stepfather

stranger/ passer-by

tourist/ foreign visitor

waiter/ waitress/ server

Suggested questions Who did I...? Who do I...? Who am I...ing? Who is...ing me? Who... me? Whose...? Other useful language at... (o'clock) this morning yesterday just before the class just after I woke up (today)	Suggested verbs accompany/ go with admit/ confess agree – refuse/ disagree annoy/ irritate – calm down answer/ reply apologise ask borrow – lend bring – take buy – sell complain compliment – insult/ criticise contact/ get in touch with disturb email/ send/ write force/ make give (back) help/ support impress inspire/ motivate introduce invite learn – teach let/ allow – ban/ forbid listen to – ignore look after/ care for make (for) meet offer pay play with promise punch recommend/ suggest say/ tell shout – whisper show sign sing sit speak/ talk wake up warn
--	---

Grammar presentation

What's the difference between the questions "Who did I recommend Hawaii to?" and "Who recommended Hawaii to me?"?

What would the long answers to those questions be?

What words could you leave out in the short answers?

Is the short answer the subject or object?

Which kind of question is called a "subject question"?